Smile away . . .

This year's fall play Teahouse Of The August Moon delighted its near capacity audiences with John Patrick's story of the American efforts to orientate the Oriental.

The play though light in theme offered great challenges in characterization, make-up and many of the technical aspects of the production.

Principal roles in the play were taken by seniors Cynthia Wrenn, Joe Townsend, Fred Wahl, Mark DiSenza, Phil Pileggi, Tina Gildersleeve and P. J. Hunt.

Aside from the intensive work done on each principal role, many humorous moments were found in every cast member's developement of character.

Special attention too should be given to the technical crews for their fantastic efforts in making every set, every costume and every prop authentic.

Color my world . . .

A brand new key . . .

MA! Good Luck
in your Big
Love affairs

FROM
Tony Vitale
your Son

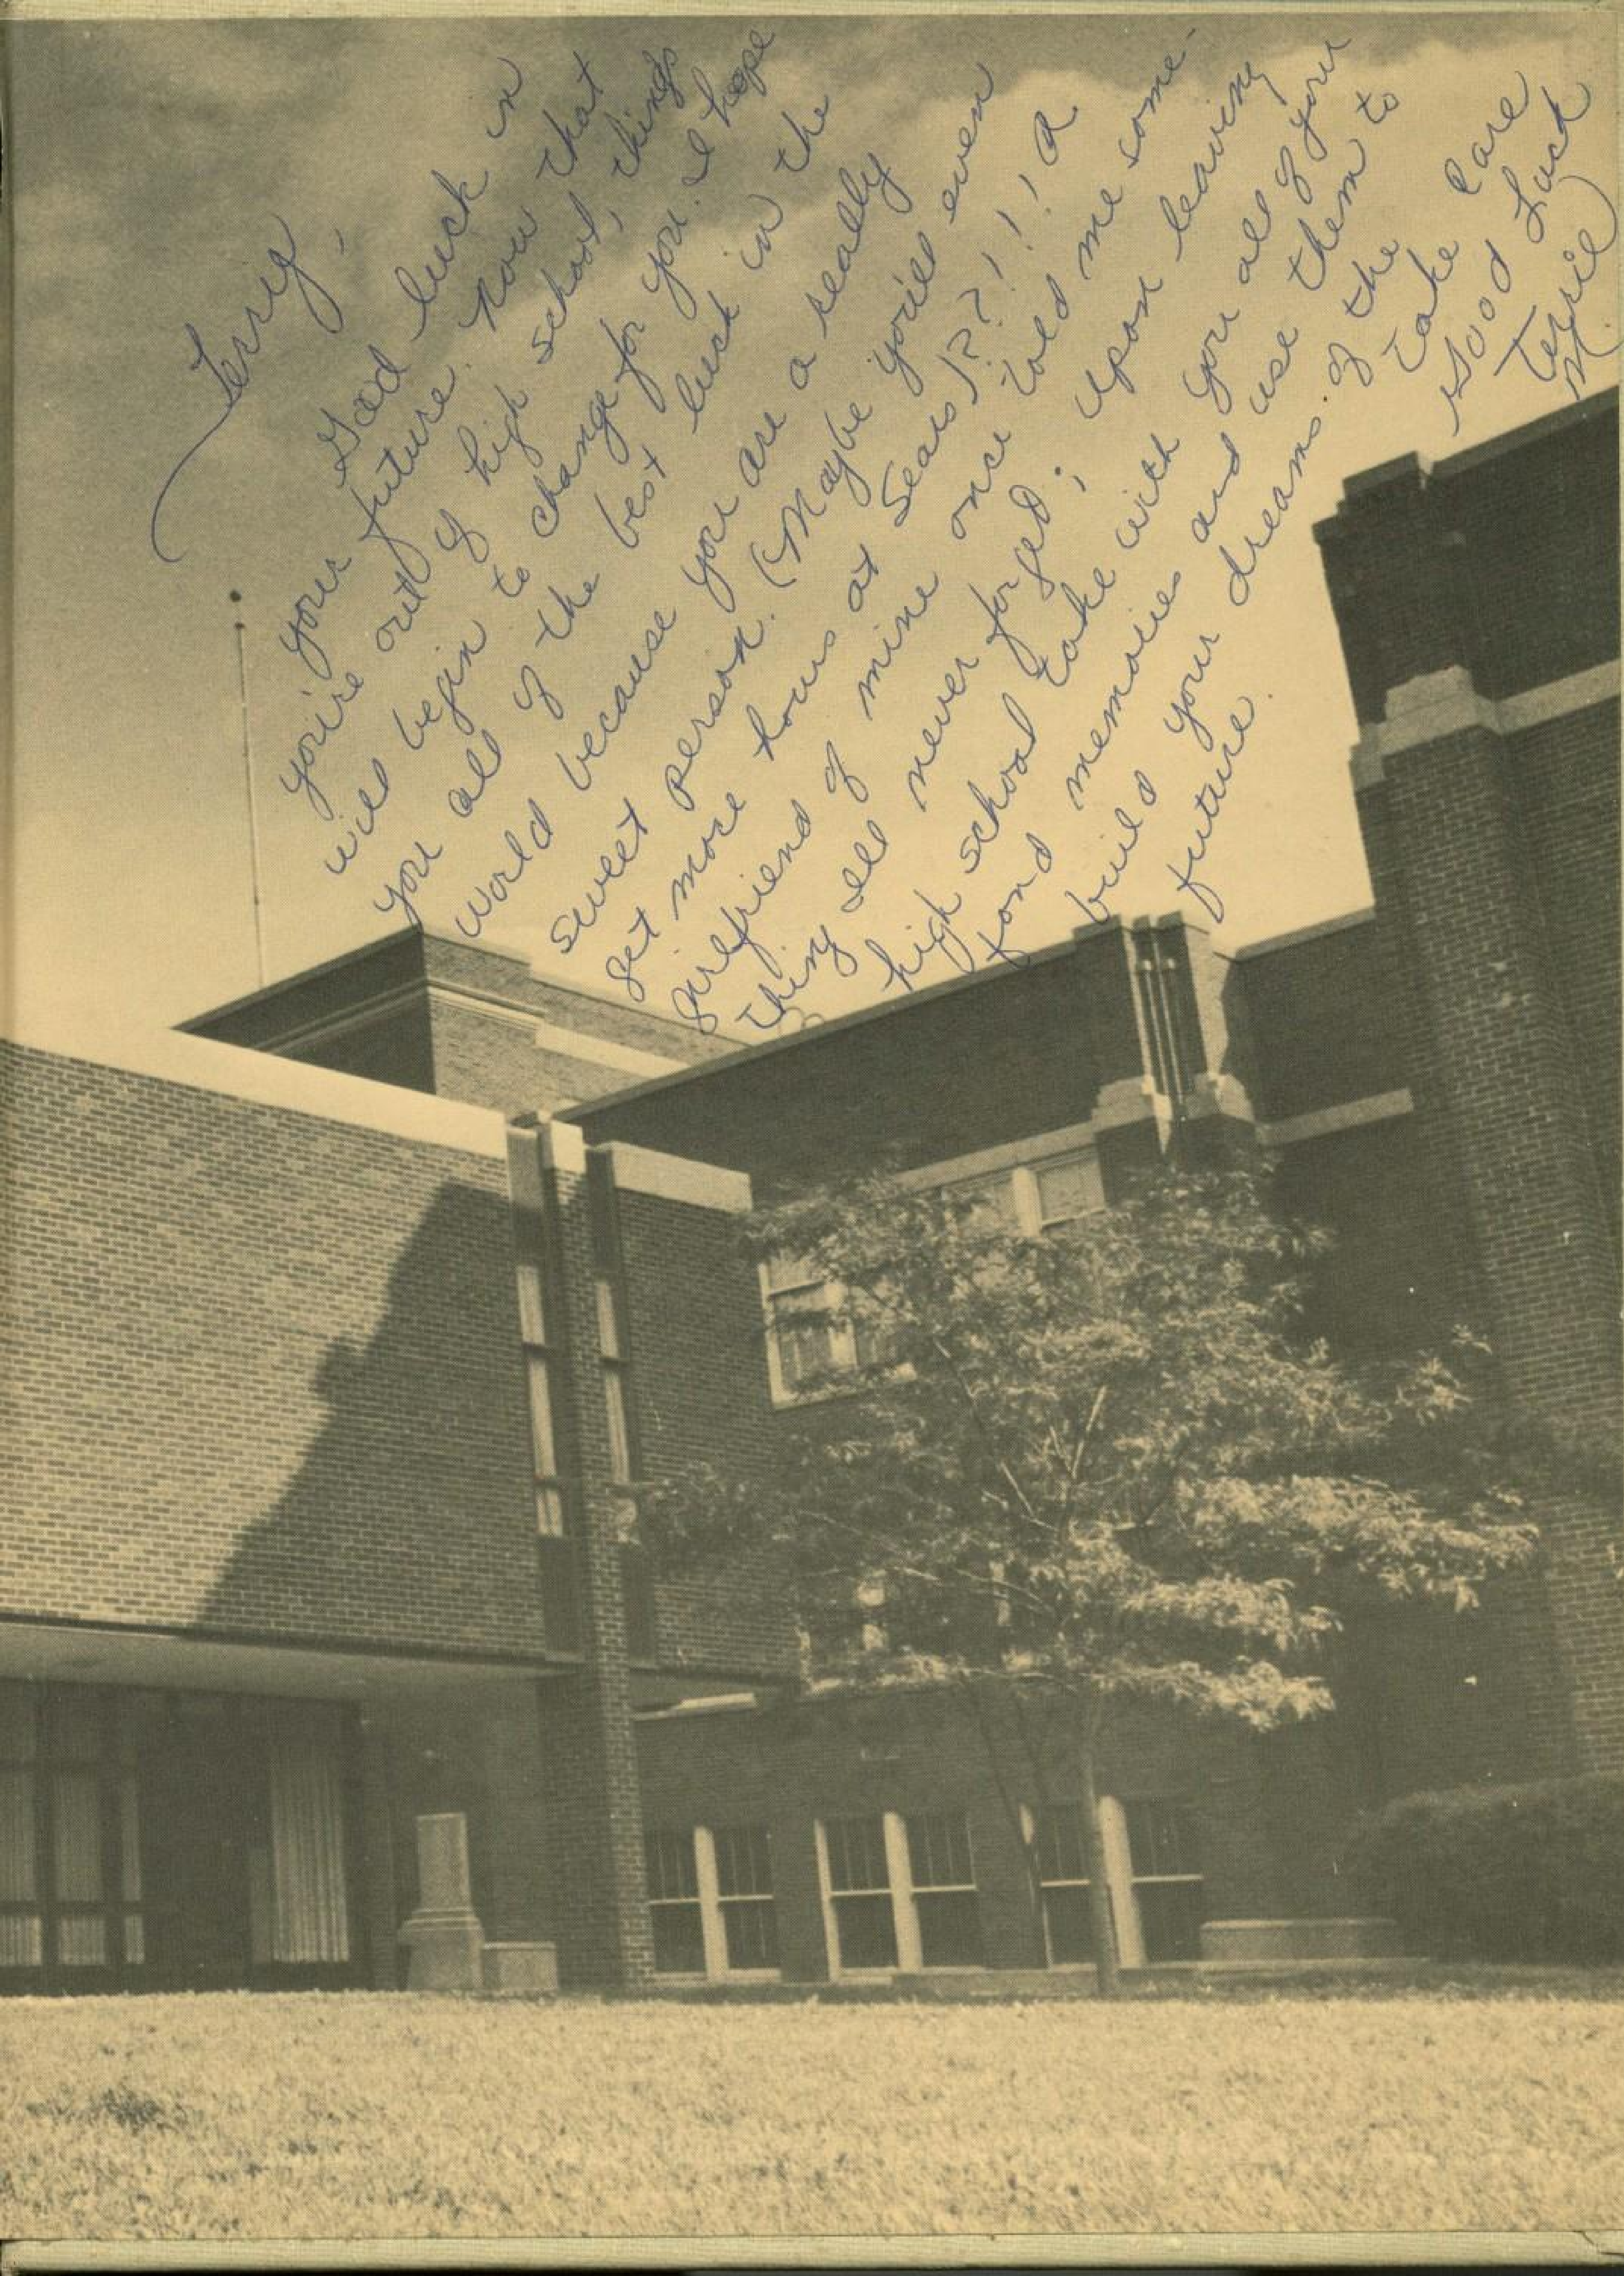
Theresa, Good Luck with Bob, Gary, Rick and all the other men in your life. I don't know why I'm wishing you luck cause what I could see you sure don't need luck.

Belinda Cardenas "77"



Terry,
Good luck in your future. Now that you're out of high school, things will begin to change for you. I hope you all of the best luck in the world because you are a really sweet person. (Maybe you'll even get more hours at Sears!?!!) A girlfriend of mine once told me something I'll never forget; Upon leaving high school take with you all of your fond memories and use them to build your dreams of the future. Take care
Good Luck
Terrie K.
